Hollister Police Recognize Graffiti Abatement Volunteers

HOLLISTER, CALIFORNIA – March 29, 2010 – On Saturday, March 27, the Hollister Police Department sponsored a Graffiti Abatement Day. Approximately 40 community members donated their time to make this day a success.

Volunteers from Anzar High School, San Benito High School, Spring Grove School and members of the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) Youth and Adelante Programs joined Hollister Police Department volunteers in the cleanup. Additionally, several community members brought their entire families to assist in the effort.

The volunteers cleaned up three large areas during this activity, including many downtown locations.

“We appreciate the dedication shown by those who participated. Our community should be especially proud of all the youth who came to help,” says Hollister Police Chief Jeff Miller.

The Hollister Police Department, with the help of its VIPs (Volunteers in Policing), will be sponsoring more graffiti abatement days this year.
